The image displays three systems of guitar tablature for the song "I'm Alright" by Neil Zaza. Each system consists of a six-line staff with fret numbers and musical notations.

System 1 (Measures 1-3):

- Measure 1: Fret numbers 7, 9, 9, 11, 12, 11, 12. A tie connects the 11th fret of the 4th string to the 11th fret of the 5th string.
- Measure 2: Fret numbers 16, 18, 17, 19, 17, 16, 17, 16. A triplet of 16th fret notes on the 3rd, 4th, and 5th strings is marked with a "3" and a bracket. Above the triplet are the letters "H" and "P".
- Measure 3: Fret numbers 11, 14, 12, 14, 14, 11, 12.

System 2 (Measures 4-6):

- Measure 4: Fret numbers 11, 13, 12, 11, (11), 12, 11, 9. A slur with a $\frac{1}{2}$ time signature connects the 11th fret of the 4th string to the 11th fret of the 5th string.
- Measure 5: Fret numbers 14, 16, 13, 16, 14, 16, 17.
- Measure 6: Fret numbers 11, 13, 12, 11, 12, 11, 9, 8.

System 3 (Measures 7-8):

- Measure 7: Fret numbers 6, 9, 7, 9, 9, 11, 12.
- Measure 8: Fret numbers 11, 13, 13, 16, 14, 19. A tie connects the 13th fret of the 4th string to the 13th fret of the 5th string.
